CURLSASK & Curling Alberta Announce Historic Merger

SASKATCHEWAN – After years of competition and mutual respect, CURLSASK and Curling Alberta are excited to announce a ground-breaking decision: the two associations will merge to create a single, unified curling powerhouse in Western Canada, CURL AB/SK.

With Alberta's recent Brier victory and Saskatchewan's deep curling history, this partnership aims to combine strengths, enhance development opportunities, and create an even stronger presence on the national stage. By working together, both provinces can maximize resources, streamline high-performance programming, and provide the best possible experience for curlers of all levels.

"This is an exciting step forward for curling in our region," said Steve Turner, Executive Director of CURLSASK. "We figured with Saskatchewan's 3-1 record against Teams from Alberta at this year's Scotties Tournament of Hearts and Montana's Brier, if you can't beat 'em, join 'em! By coming together, we can build on our successes and create even more opportunities for curlers, fans, and clubs across both provinces."

If you've read this far, we want to wish you a Happy April Fool's Day! Saskatchewan curlers will never trade in their green jackets, and our rivalry with Alberta is alive and well. But hey, after another Alberta Brier win, we had to at least consider our options. See you on the ice, and as always - Go Sask Go!
