CURLSASK and Bunge Extend Partnership to Support Saskatchewan Women's Curling Through 2029

CURLSASK is pleased to announce the extension of its long-standing partnerships with Bunge, securing continued support for Saskatchewan's premier provincial women's curling championships.

Through a new three-year agreement, Bunge will continue as title sponsor of the Bunge Prairie Pinnacle, Saskatchewan's women's provincial curling championship. This partnership helps provide Saskatchewan's top female athletes with the opportunity to compete at the highest level of provincial competition while supporting the continued growth and development of curling across the province.

"Strong partnerships are essential to the continued growth and success of curling in Saskatchewan, and we're grateful to have Bunge alongside us," said CURLSASK Executive Director Steve Turner. "Their ongoing support allows us to invest in meaningful experiences for participants and showcase the very best of our sport."

Bunge's continued investment reflects its commitment to communities across Saskatchewan and its support of women's curling at the provincial level.

"Bunge is proud to continue our long-standing partnership with CURLSASK and support the Bunge Prairie Pinnacle," said Kyle Jeworski, Head of Bunge in Canada. "The Bunge Prairie Pinnacle highlights the talent and dedication of Saskatchewan's women curlers, and we're pleased to help create opportunities for these athletes to compete at the highest level while bringing communities together across the province."

The renewed agreement will continue through the upcoming championship cycles, including the 2027 Bunge Prairie Pinnacle, which will be hosted at the Cenovus Energy Hub in Lloydminster, Saskatchewan from January 10-17, 2027.

The championship will bring Saskatchewan's top women's teams together to compete for provincial title and the opportunity to represent Saskatchewan at the national championship.

CURLSASK is excited to partner with the Lloydminster host committee and community to deliver a first-class championship experience for athletes, officials, volunteers, sponsors, and fans from across the province.
